

Qi-Mag® Feng Shui project design for a holiday apartment focus of the project: increasing the 'YIN' (female) quality of the building in order to balance out the dominant 'YANG' (male aspect) of the island. creation of a vital, 'feel-good' atmosphere in view of the many-sided criteria of Qi-Mag® Feng Shui, and applied geomancy to establish a quality and position in the existing market that were, until now, rarely available. to offer the guest a basis upon which to experience a holistic relaxation and calm, so that they can enjoy inspiration and rest.
